SUBJECT: INTRODUCTION

POLICIES

- 1.1.1 Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis (AGLC) is established under the Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Act (GLCA) and is governed by the requirements of the Criminal Code, the GLCA and the Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis Regulation (GLCR).
- 1.1.2 AGLC is the province's liquor authority, responsible for administering and regulating the liquor industry in Alberta.
- 1.1.3 Board policies are approved by the Board of AGLC and signed by its Chair, on behalf of the Board.
- 1.1.4 These policies apply to agents of the Board authorized pursuant to Section 99 of the GLCR to warehouse and distribute liquor. This includes policies approved or amended after the warehouse operator's appointment is authorized.
- 1.1.5 Guidelines are best business practices designed to help warehouse operators meet operating requirements.
- 1.1.6 The administration and monitoring of activities related to warehousing is managed by AGLC. (moved from 1.3.1 Sept 2021)
- 1.1.7 The Liquor Warehouse Handbook (Handbook), which contains Board policies and Guidelines, is available on AGLC's website at aglc.ca.
- 1.1.8 Warehouse operators are responsible for ensuring the Handbook is available to their staff.
- 1.1.9 An activity not specifically permitted in this Handbook is prohibited.

GUIDELINES

- 1.1.10 The purpose of this handbook is to provide information that will help warehouse operators in meeting AGLC requirements. This handbook does not replace the GLCA or GLCR.
- 1.1.11 The GLCA and GLCR may be accessed on the Queen's Printer website at gp.alberta.ca.
- 1.1.12 Additional AGLC contact information can be found at aglc.ca. (moved from 1.3.1 Sept 2021)

SUBJECT: INSURANCE

POLICIES

- 1.7.1 Warehouses must indemnify and hold harmless AGLC and AGLC's employees or agents from any and all third party claims, demands, actions and costs that may arise directly or indirectly, out of any act or omission of the warehouse or their employees or agents.
- 1.7.2 Warehouses must, without limiting their liabilities herein, and at their own expense, insure their operations under a contract of either comprehensive or commercial general liability insurance. The insurance must be in an amount of not less than $2,000,000 inclusive per occurrence insuring against bodily injury, personal injury and property damage and including loss of use thereof.
- 1.7.3 Warehouses must provide fidelity coverage for all officers and employees in an amount of not less than $1,000,000 for any one loss. Such coverage must extend to include all property and liquor entrusted to the warehouse and any property or liquor for which the warehouse may be legally liable.
- 1.7.4 Warehouses must, unless agreed to in writing by AGLC, be responsible for insuring the liquor against all risks of loss or damage. Such insurance must be in an amount of not less than the cost of the liquor and must note the interest of AGLC as loss payee, and all liquor suppliers or liquor agencies, as their interests may appear. Coverage for the liquor must apply from the time the liquor is accepted by the warehouse (by the issuance of a signed delivery receipt), until such time as it has been loaded for outbound shipment and accepted by the carrier for transport (by the issuance of a bill of lading).
- 1.7.5 If AGLC is responsible for insuring the liquor, warehouses must, without limiting their liabilities herein and at their own expense, maintain all risks Warehouseman's Legal Liability Insurance in an amount adequate to cover the cost of all liquor held in the warehouse. If AGLC insures the liquor, it is understood and agreed that the insurance coverage will not provide a waiver of subrogation in favor of the warehouse for any loss or damage due to the negligence or willful acts of the warehouse, its directors, officers, employees, agents or others for whom the warehouse is at law responsible.
- 1.7.6 All required insurance must be endorsed to provide AGLC with 30 days advance notice of cancellation or material reduction in coverage.

SUBJECT: INSURANCE

- 1.7.7 Warehouses must provide to AGLC evidence of all required insurance in the form of a detailed certificate of insurance acceptable to AGLC. All insurance must be placed with insurers in accordance with the Alberta Insurance Act.
- 1.7.8 If AGLC is responsible for insuring liquor, the warehousier will not do or permit anything to be done, nor make or permit any omission to be made, which will result in a nuisance, or which will cause the rate of insurance upon the liquor to be increased. If the rate of insurance is increased, the warehousier must pay AGLC the amount by which the insurance premiums increased. If notice of cancellation must be given respecting any insurance policy or if any insurance policy upon the liquor must be cancelled or refused by an insurer by reason of the warehousier's use of or occupation of the warehouse or any part thereof, or if in the opinion of AGLC's insurers acting reasonably, the warehousier's use or occupation of the warehouse is not in compliance with these policies, the warehousier must forthwith remedy or rectify such use or occupation upon being requested to do so in writing by AGLC. If the warehousier fails to do so forthwith, AGLC, at its option, may either remedy or rectify the nuisance at the warehousier's sole cost, or terminate the warehouse appointment.

SUBJECT: SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS

3.2.5 Warehouses must be able to electronically receive, acknowledge and process information from AGLC relating to new liquor products and liquor prices. Warehouses must meet the specifications defined in the "Warehouse Inventory and Revenue Management System Overview" document for these purposes. (Amended Sept 2021)

3.2.6 Warehouses must be able to receive, acknowledge, and process information relating to new licensees or changes to licensees.

3.2.7 Warehouses must give AGLC free and unrestricted access to the warehouse and all records including, but not limited to, the following:

- a) shipping reports;
- b) bills of lading;
- c) invoices;
- d) adjustments; and
- e) receiving reports.

AGLC has the right to examine and make copies of all records and if necessary, to remove records from the warehouse for further review.

3.2.8 Warehouses must allow AGLC free and unrestricted access to the warehouse, for the following functions: (Amended Sept 2021)

- a) counts of liquor being shipped;
- b) counts of liquor being received;
- c) inventory counts; and
- d) verifying returns of liquor product. (Added Sept 2021)

POLICIES

- 3.3.1 Warehouses and AGLC have access to and receive information relating to each other, the Government of Alberta, liquor suppliers, liquor agencies and liquor licensees. All of this information is the property of the respective person and confidential unless the person specifically states otherwise in a written consent or notice.
- 3.3.2 AGLC is bound by the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act. Warehouses must treat all information they receive or have access to, with the strictest confidence. The warehouse must not divulge any information in its possession, or to which it has access, to anyone, without the prior written consent of the other party, AGLC, or an affected liquor supplier, liquor agency or liquor licensee.
- 3.3.3 Warehouses acknowledge the FOIP Act and must protect any information they possess, receive or have access to under these policies to a standard at least as high as the requirements of the FOIP Act.
- 3.3.4 In addition to their obligations above, warehouses must undertake whatever steps are reasonably necessary to ensure any information given to or accessible by one of its employees, agents, contractors or other person working under its direction or control will abide by the undertaking given in 3.3.3.
- 3.3.5 In the event of a data breach, the warehouse must immediately inform AGLC of when the data breach was first identified.
