REQUEST TO AMEND USE OF GAMING PROCEEDS

Before completing the attached Request to Amend Use of Gaming Proceeds, please read the following information:

An organization may amend its use of gaming proceeds at any time by submitting the request on this form. Prior approval must be obtained before disbursement of proceeds. Organizations disbursing gaming proceeds without prior approval from AGLC may be subject to penalty and/or fine. A use of proceeds not specifically accommodated in AGLC's Charitable Gaming Policies Handbook (CGPH) is considered ineligible.

Cost Recovery: Expenses for charitable programs that generate or receive revenue (e.g. admission fees, registration fees, donations, grants, advertising revenue, facility rental revenue, etc.) must be managed on a cost recover basis. Program revenue and any revenue received for programs or activities, such as donations, and/or grants, etc., must be spent prior to any gaming proceeds being used.

All amendments must be signed by two current executive members of the organization and include any required support documentation or completed forms.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Check (✓) all categories that identifies how the organization proposes to spend gaming proceeds. Please only select the categories that your organization will be allocating gaming funds. Categories previously approved, do not need to be checked a second time.
- The use of proceed categories listed on this form are separated in two sections:
Section 1 - The use of proceeds categories within Section 1 DO NOT require the submission of additional detail supporting the proposed use. It is the organization's responsibility to ensure the disbursement of proceeds complies with the Charitable Gaming Policy Handbook (CGPH).
- Section 2 - The use of proceeds categories within Section 2 DO REQUIRE the submission of specified AGLC forms or documentation for prior approval. Please reference applicable policy and guidelines at aglc.ca to ensure all required documentation has been submitted.
- A brief description of each category is provided. A complete description of each use of proceeds policy can be viewed on AGLC's website aglc.ca under the Charitable Gaming Policies Handbook (CGPH), Section 5 – Use of Proceeds (UOP).
- All AGLC forms are available at aglc.ca
- Incomplete submissions will be returned to the organization to the attention of the Treasurer. Once all required information is available, the request may be resubmitted for consideration.
- Completed forms may be emailed to gaming.useofproceeds@aglc.ca
- Organizations can view currently approved UOP list through their Internet Account – see Online Services at aglc.ca to create an online web account.
- Retain copies of all documents submitted to AGLC.

Section 1

Only select the categories applicable to the organization's actual use of gaming proceeds.

- Accounting Fees/Gaming Financial Reports
Groups may use gaming proceeds to pay a reasonable fee for the preparation of gaming financial reports, including payment to a third-party individual. CGPH 5.1
- Administrative Costs – Maximum 20%
Gaming proceeds may be used for administrative expenses that are necessary for eligible charitable programs or services. Administrative expenditures are limited to a maximum cumulative total of 20% of gaming proceeds earned the previous calendar year. Administrative costs that are eligible for approval include: wages for administrative positions such as receptionists, other clerical positions, and executive director positions that are primarily administrative; bookkeeping and preparation of financial statements (income statement and balance sheet only); phone, internet, and online meeting service fees; office supplies and postage; computer hardware and software for administrative purposes; space rental used primarily for administrative purposes and regular membership meetings; storage, including rental and purchase of items to accommodate storage; liability insurance premiums for directors' and program/event liability; moving/relocation expenses and travel within Alberta for board or membership meetings, including AGM, provincial, district or zone. Administrative costs related to the internal administrative activities of the group are not eligible uses of gaming proceeds. Costs that are not eligible for approval include: food and beverage; payment to board or executive members; fundraising activities and events; professional fees for conducting an audit or review engagement of the group's financial statements and legal fees. CGPH 5.2
- Awards
Gaming proceeds may be used for awards in recognition of earned achievements including trophies, plaques, ribbons, and belt buckles that must be inscribed with the name of the group and event. Gaming proceeds must not be used for cash, merchandise prizes or any other prize of value and volunteer recognition/appreciation. CGPH 5.4
- Donations Within Alberta $5,000 or Less to Non AGLC-Licensed Organizations
Groups may make a total annual donation up to $5,000 to any eligible individual charity within Alberta (that is NOT an AGLC-licensed group), without prior approval. The Donor must ensure the recipient uses the proceeds for purposes that are within the CGPH and must retain a completed Recipient Agreement for Non-AGLC licensed Groups. Groups that only conduct raffles with a total ticket value $20,000 and less, are considered Non-AGLC groups for the purpose of receiving a donation of gaming proceeds. CGPH 5.8
- Donations Within Alberta $50,000 or Less to AGLC-Licensed Organizations
Groups may make a total annual donation up to $50,000 to any eligible individual charity within Alberta without prior approval, if the recipient is an organization licensed and in good standing with AGLC. The recipient must deposit donations of charitable gaming proceeds in a gaming bank account and must use in accordance with currently approved use of proceeds. The Donor must retain a completed Recipient Agreement for Licensed AGLC Groups. CGPH 5.8

- Donations Out of Alberta but in Canada of $5,000 or Less
Groups may make a total annual donation up to $5,000 to any eligible non-profit group outside of AB but within Canada to support disaster/emergency relief; nationally recognized programs that benefit Albertans, or medical and educational research programs which may benefit all Canadians. Donor must retain a completed Recipient Agreement form for Non-AGLC Licensed group. CGPH 5.9
- Donation Out of Canada $1,000 or Less
Groups may make a total annual donation of $1,000 or less outside of Canada to any eligible non-profit group to support international disaster/emergency relief or projects in developing countries that the Canadian federal government approves for international development. The Donor must ensure the recipient uses the proceeds for purposes that are within the CGPH and must retain a completed Recipient Agreement for Non-AGLC Licensed Group. CGPH 5.9
- Education
Gaming proceeds may be used to support curriculum enhancements that contribute to student learning development, such as: educational field trips; equipment (e.g. audio-visual, computers/laptops/tablets, science equipment, musical instruments etc.); in school presenters; and student meal programs. Requests to use gaming funds towards playground development, outdoor classrooms or community gardens, must be submitted for prior approval. Refer to CGPH 5.10 for additional information.
- Equipment
Gaming proceeds may be used to purchase, rent, and maintain items essential to the delivery of the group's charitable programs or service. Groups must maintain ownership and control of items purchased with gaming proceeds and maintain an asset log of all items. Equipment that is used in any activity or operation which is intended to produce income cannot be purchased with gaming proceeds. CGPH 5.13
Education/School Groups Only:* Gaming proceeds may be used to purchase educational equipment and supplies such as audio/visual equipment, athletic equipment and musical instruments which otherwise would not be available. The ownership of these assets shall remain with the educational institution or school. Refer to CCPH 5.10
- Officials/Judges Fees
Includes referees, umpires, adjudicators, or other positions responsible for officiating or judging a competition or tournament. CGPH 5.22
- Promotional Activities
Gaming proceeds may be used to promote participation and increase public awareness in a group's charitable programs. This includes advertising in newspapers, radio, television, posters, signs, pamphlets, letters, and internet web pages, as well as, website development, design, updates, maintenance, domain and hosting, and recognition of the group's programs or contribution to the community through plaques, benches, murals, monuments, statues, cenotaphs, memorial walls, etc. CGPH 5.19
- Registration/Affiliation Fees
Gaming funds can be used to pay for membership, registration, or affiliation fees to local, provincial, national, or international governing bodies when the fees are related to a groups' specific objectives and individual members do not also pay the fee. CGPH 5.22
- Rent – Facility
Occasional venue rental or short-term facility rentals 12 months or less for facilities such as: arenas, sports fields, performing arts venues and space for charitable programs. Rental fee is for the use of space only and does not include operating or capital costs. CGPH 5.15
- Resource Materials/Supplies
Program related materials and supplies such as resource materials, software, books, manuals pamphlets, and brochures. May also include the design and production of program related materials. CGPH 5.13
- Travel – In Province
Gaming proceeds may be used for travel in Alberta if the travel is essential for the group to deliver its charitable program. Travel that is social or recreational is not eligible, except for Seniors in accordance with CGPH 5.20. Gaming proceeds may be used for the costs of direct-route transportation, meals, registration fees and accommodation for participation during the period of the actual activity or event. All expenditures must be supported by receipt or voucher. CGPH 5.23
- Uniforms/Costumes
Gaming proceeds can be used to purchase uniforms and costumes that remain the property of the organization and are required for competitive play, practice, cultural or organizational representation, or artistic performance. Groups must establish a written policy for the use of uniforms/costumes and provide to AGLC upon request. CGPH 5.13
- Vehicle Purchase/Repairs/Operation
Vehicle must be essential to the delivery of the group's charitable program and must be registered and insured in the name of the licensed group or other approved entity. Gaming proceeds may be used to purchase, rent, or lease vehicles (e.g. van, bus, all-terrain vehicle, trailer). The group must maintain a log for the use of the vehicle that identified the date of use, destination, purpose, driver, and mileage. CGPH 5.13

Section 2
