

Raffle Licence Application

Total Ticket Value More than $20,000 – Addendum Electronic Raffles

This application must be completed when a charity intends to use an electronic raffle system (ERS) in the conduct of a raffle event. Additional information about Electronic Raffle Systems can be found in the Raffle Terms & Conditions at aglc.ca.

Charities may use an ERS to:

- Sell and provide a ticket(s) to the purchaser
- Select a prize winner(s)

Only a gaming supplier registered with AGLC may provide an approved ERS to the charity for its raffle(s).

A charity may develop its own ERS, which an accredited testing facility (ATF) registered with AGLC, must certify. AGLC must approve use of the ERS after receiving the certificate. The ERS must comply with the Electronic Raffle Standards Document (ERSD) and have AGLC approval prior to use. Please contact AGLC for additional information.

Part 4 – ERS Administrator

The charity must assign an administrator(s) to oversee ERS operations. All ERS administrator(s) must have a level of expertise and training in the operation of the ERS hardware and software, such as event set-up, report generation, troubleshooting etc. An ERS administrator must be present throughout the raffle event, including the draw(s).

A paid ERS administrator must hold a valid raffle worker registration with AGLC. The application may be found at aglc.ca.

Where the Total Ticket Value (TTV) requested is $100,000 or more, volunteer ERS administrators must provide a current, original criminal background check from a local police or RCMP detachment dated within the last three months. AGLC will not accept photocopies, scans, faxes, or third-party criminal records checks. Submit the criminal records check with application.

It is recommended that a charity assign more than one ERS administrator.
